Judge W. C. Sheely and W. Jack Watson, Scout executive for the York-Adams area, were among the speakers Thursday evening at a Parents' Night program held by the local Catholic Boy Scout Troop No. 78.

Termining "Scout training the greatest training you can have," Judge Sheely told the scouts: "What Adams county is today is the accumulation of the work and the activities of all who have gone before us. Each generation in its turn has made its mark for good or bad on the county. Our grandfathers were the America and the Adams county of yesterday. They turned it over to us, the America of today. You of the next generation will soon hold America and Adams county in your hands to do with it what you will, and transmit the result to your sons and daughters. The kind of mark you make on it will depend upon your training, and in scouting you are obtaining the best training that can be given."

Judge Sheely and Scout Executive Watson presented Star and Life badges to Charles Hemler, Kenneth Cole and Dale Kane, who recently passed board of review advancement tests.

Other Speakers

Scout Executive Watson congratulated the troop for planning to send a large contingent to the national Boy Scout jamboree to be held at Valley Forge this summer and urged all members of the troop to be present at a Pan-jamboree to be held in June at Wizard ranch, near Columbia, where the scouts from the area will be guests of Col. Fire Chief Appeals For Full Directions With Fire Alarms

"If you have a fire, or your neighbor does, and you call the Gettysburg telephone exchange to report it and seek assistance from the fire department, take time enough to give the operator your name, and the exact location on the fire," was the appeal made today by Fire Chief James A. Aumen.

Firemen were called at 8:45 o'clock this morning to a fire about a mile east of Gettysburg on the Bonneauville road, but the directions given the operator were: "second lane on the concrete highway."

Fire trucks found the "second lane" but there was no one there to tell them which house was on fire, until a youngster came down the road on a bicycle and reported "the fire's all out." Firemen went to the house, the home of Paul Little, and found that the fire wasn't "all out."

It had been caused by an overheated stovepipe through the first floor ceiling. Damage was slight, Chief Aumen said. While the fire trucks were attempting to locate the house, however, a more serious loss could have resulted, Chief Aumen pointed out.

"It's not the fault of the telephone operators. They give us their fullest cooperation, but they can't tell us where a fire is if the person who calls in does not tell them the exact location, and 'hangs up' before the operator can get further information," Aumen said.

"Give us better directions and we'll get to the fire and extinguish it if possible," the chief added.

Gettysburg firemen searched miles of territory in the Cranberry valley last Saturday without finding a fire because meagre directions were given. On several other occasions recently the apparatus has been delayed in arriving at the scene of a fire because of faulty or incomplete directions.

POLICE SEEKING "SLICK WILLIE" FOR STICKUPS

By JOHN RANDOLPH
New York, March 10 (AP)—Willie the Actor can't complain he's never been wanted.

He's been "wanted" for most of the last 33 years as one of the slickest stickup men in the business, and a prison escape artist to boot. And he's wanted more than ever today as the No. 1 suspect in yesterday's butter-smooth, hour-and-a-half robbery of a branch bank here that netted a haul of $63,000 in untraceable small bills.

If police ever catch up with Willie they also like to chat about that $1,500,000 Brink's robbery in Boston last January—biggest cash holdup in U. S. history—and a not-so-small $562,000 stickup in Havana, Cuba, bank in 1945.

Mary Aliases
Willie's real name is William Sutton. But at one time or another since 1917 he's answered to Julian Loring, George Holland, Richard Courtney and Richard Loring—fancy names from the English gentry.

On the whole, however, he's best known as Willie the Actor, having won the title for the disguises he used on various jobs. One of his favorites was a policeman's uniform. It inspired confidence.

When police passed around a mug shot of Willie yesterday, 11 of 17 employees of the Queens Boulevard branch of the Manufacturer's Trust Co., named him on the spot as the gang leader. Willie—if it was Willie—and two other gunmen hit the bank before opening yesterday morning and forced their way in with the first employee to arrive.

The others walked in one by one, were caught in the mousetrap and made to sit down. Then as soon as the time locks opened in the vault doors, the gang cleaned out all the paper money on hand and disappeared, spurning $11,000 in silver. Police believe two others were involved in the getaway—although the trio might have escaped by subway.

Bullets Drub F. And M. 84-66 For Season Mark Of 12-12; Frosh Nip Diplomat Yearlings 63-60

The Gettysburg college basketball team brought its season to a close with a 12-12 record by drubbing a weak Franklin and Marshall team 84-66 here Thursday evening. Less than 1,000 fans turned out for the game.

Coach "Hen" Bream's Bullets toyed with their opponents throughout and won as they pleased.

A goal by Pure and two by O'Brien got the locals off to a 6-0 lead before the Diplomats spurted and eventually went ahead 9-8 after over six minutes of play for their only lead of the evening. A foul by O'Brien and goals by Pure, Belber, O'Brien and Harris put Gettysburg in front 17-9 at the quarter.

Bob O'Brien and Bucky Harris supplied most of the scoring punch in the second period as the Bullets ran their margin to 38-26 at half time.

Four In Final
After the regulars had run their lead to 61-41 at the close of the third period, the sophomore unit broke into the lineup shortly after the final quarter got underway.

Four Bullets, Sachs, Harris, Pure and Gorman played in their final game, all being listed for graduation in June.

Harris took the scoring honors for Gettysburg with 18 points with O'Brien a close second with 17. Bohoe topped F. and M. with 26 tallies.

The defeat was the 10th against seven wins for the eight-man Diplomats outfit.

Johnny Yovicsin's freshmen won the preliminary 63-60 to give them a 10-6 season's record. Bob Pizalato, with 30 points, and Lenz with 24, paced their respective teams. Bruce Westerdaal, former Gettysburg high school star, started for the visitors but played only a short time.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

Syracuse, N. Y., March 10 (P)—

Vic Hanson, who was a heck of a basketball player as well as a footballer some 25 years ago, was awaiting some visitors in the railroad station yesterday when the St. Louis Bombers blew in. . . Vic got at him in his neck starting up the creek as he gasped: "Gosh, they're really a lot of big fellows. We used to have some big ones when I played. Joe Lapchick for one, but not so many of them. . . Then he looked up again and added: "and not so big"—just then Nat Holman, one of the greatest of the old-time pro basketballers, came along and Vic could look down for a change.

—Holman, Eddie Egan, Chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, and sportscaster Marty Glickman were here for last night's dinner honoring Athletic Director Lew Andrews and Boxing and Lacrosse Coach Roy Simmons, both of whom have been on the job here for 25 years. . . Egan rather wistfully commented that he wished he could stick around for the college boxing tournament—maybe to see some fighters who were really trying. Glickman was offering to cover all bets—up to $1—taking Syracuse against Long Island in the invitation basketball tourney. He had 20 bucks worth at last report.

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Rumors that Floyd (Ben) Schwartzwalder, Syracuse football coach, is interested in the Penn State job recently vacated by Joe Bedenk have this much foundation—Ben was a student at West Virginia when Dean Carl Schott, Penn State's Athletic boss, was there. And he was a special favorite of Schott, who got him his first coaching job and recommended him for the Muhlenberg and Syracuse posts. . .

END OF THE LINE

Rudy Valentino, Penn State's "human top" tumbler who almost ties himself in knots going through his routine, never has been hurt in two years of intercollegiate competition. . . visiting at home the other day just before a meet, Rudy tried leap-frogging over a fire plug. Result: a sprained wrist.

General Manager John Quinn said Outfielder Luis Olmo probably will report to the Tribe at Miami. Purchased from Brooklyn after the last season, Olmo has been a successful playing manager in winter ball.

Tucson, Ariz., March 10 (P)—Outfielder Larry Doby says he's through trying to kill the ball. But he has walloped the longest home at Randolph Park during these first nine days of the Cleveland Indians' spring training.

Doby sent one of Bob Lemon's offerings riding more than 400 feet over the centerfield fence in an intrasquad game yesterday. He also dropped a double into short left field to drive home a run for the regulars who lost to the Yannisians 4-3.

Clearwater, Fla., March 10 (P)—Add Pitching Coach George Earnshaw to the list of those who think Rookie Hurler Charlie Bicknell will make the major league grade with the Philadelphia Phillies this season.

Earnshaw, who used to pitch for the Philadelphia Athletics, said today Bicknell shows every sign of having "big time stuff."

Bicknell, used sparingly by the Phils last season, allowed four scattered hits in three innings of yesterday's intra-squad game, striking out two and issuing no walks.

San Bernardino, Calif., March 10 (P)—Pitcher Hal Gregg knows he's getting his last chance with the Pittsburgh Pirates and is bearing down harder than any rookie in the training camp.

Gregg, trying hard to make a comeback after two listless seasons since he came to the Bucs from the Brooklyn Dodgers, reported in top physical condition. In his first appearance on the mound he pitched two innings, facing only six men.

He's scheduled for his second test tomorrow when he hurls three innings against the St. Louis Browns in an exhibition at Burbank.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 10 (P)—The Philadelphia Athletics have crossed training camp fingers on one of their big hopes of the year—the return of Outfielder Barney McCosky to the lineup.

Barney injured his back in the first day of 1949 training, and played no ball last year. He has a lifetime batting average of .320. Extensive surgery in Detroit three months ago may have corrected the back trouble. Barney is running and exercising daily, and expects within a month to make the big try—to swing a bat. If the pain doesn't come back then, he says, he's in.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (P)—Outfielder Stan Musial hopes to resume practice with the St. Louis Cardinals today. He says his chest cold has broken up and he will be in uniform when the squad opens its exhibition season Saturday against the New York Yankees.

Musial took heat treatments yesterday.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (P)—The New York Yankee management has sent ultimatums to the two remaining holdouts—Pitcher Tony Byrne and Infielder Bobby Brown.

The gentlemen who handle the cash for the world champions sent the recalcitrants word that they have gone the limit in their offers. The next move, they indicated, are up to the holdouts.

Byrne won 15 games last year. Brown played 104 games at third and batted .283.

Boxing Association tournament here tonight and tomorrow.

The four are Chuck Drazanovich of Penn State, the defending champion; Marty Crandell of Syracuse, national collegiate A. A. titleholder; Bill Kellum of Army and Joe Corietto of Western Maryland. They're not polished boxers, in the professional sense, but they're all big, rough and willing and have plenty of experience for college boxers.

Miami, Fla., March 10 (P)—Two Pennsylvanians were four strokes off the pace at the start of the second round of the Miami Beach $10,000 open golf tournament today.

Trailing Harper, who shot a 69 yesterday, were Art Wall, Jr., Pocono Manor, with a 36-37-73, and Lew Worsham, Oakmont, 39-34-73.

Miami Beach, Fla., March 10 (P)—A pair of soft-spoken southerners, both veterans of many campaigns of the links, shared the lead today as the Miami Beach $10,000 Invitational golf tournament went into the second round.

Chunky Johnny Palmer, professional of Badin, N. C., who earlier this week won the La Gorce country club pro-amateur, and Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., each carried three under par 69's yesterday as the first major Miami Beach tournament in 20 years got underway.

Princeton, N. J., March 10 (P)—The Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling championships open here today with Syracuse trying for its second straight title. Sixteen colleges have entered full squads of eight men, with Lehigh regarded as Syracuse's chief threat.

Franklin & Marshall and Rutgers also are regarded as threats to the Syracuse-Lehigh domination. Competing are Army, Brown, Columbia, Cornell, Franklin & Marshall, Harvard, Lehigh, Navy, Pennsylvania, Penn State, Princeton, Rutgers, Syracuse, Temple, Virginia and Yale.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

RESPECT

Robert Henri said of the painter Valasquez that everything he painted had dignity, from a clown to a king.
"In the Infanta Margarita" he united the look of a child with that of a queen. He drew greatness out of his models. He was a man in love with humanity. He had the utmost respect for the king, the beggar and the dwarf. That is what made him great!

We cannot love anyone whom we do not respect. Nor can we give to such the consideration that is their due, unless we genuinely respect them. Many a home is made unhappy, and often torn apart, because of a lack of respect for those who are a part of it.

No leader can hope to have followers for long unless he demands, and gets, their respect. Nor can that leader demand without character to back it up. That is what creates respect. We do not have to agree with the ideas of another in order to respect what he has to say. Respect is a tribute to that one's honesty and integrity.

The God and good within us respect all races, color, and creeds, but that does not mean that we shall agree with all of the ideas of others. The meteoric and dramatic career of William Jennings Bryan brought to his standard millions of admirers. I being one of them, I knew him and respected him, but I could never vote for him when he was a candidate for the Presidency of the United States.

We would have more friends, and better ones, if we respected them more. All too often our prejudices rule instead of our magnanimity.
Each of us in our heart should have respect for "the king, the beggar and the dwarf." Then there would always be understanding. The painter of a clown, or a tramp, would have to respect him in order to correctly portray him.

The ideal democracy is where all ideas are respected. When this is not done, democracy falls apart and is unworkable. Even in the case of a baseball team, if their leader is not respected, that team doesn't become champion! The morale of the team breaks down. Respect is but another name for faith.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "One's Best Friend."

All It Takes

A little time a little thought
And someone's task is lightened.

A flower or two for friendship

And someone's day is brightened.

Success And Failure

Who helps another in distress
Is for the moment a success,
Who sees the need and turns away

Will, as a failure, end the day.

See Your Doctor
From friends who ask you how you feel,

'Tis best your miseries to conceal.
Unto your doctor promptly go;
He'll gladly hear your tale of woe.

Gossip

If you believe the gossips when
They talk about your fellow men,
You mustn't grumble, as you'll

When some believe what's told of

NEW HYDROGEN BOMB PLANS NEED TALENT

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Washington, March 10 (AP)—Lining up the needed scientists, particularly foreigners, apparently is one of the big worries in the new hydrogen bomb program.

The problem may involve such issues as:

1. Setting up safeguards against another Fuchs spy case.
2. Deciding whether the H-bomb effort shall be partial or fullscale.
3. Draining scientists from universities and industry to an extent that might cripple the training of the physicists of the future.
4. There is Deep Concern
5. Making another deal with Britain.
6. Amending the atomic energy law.
7. Opposition of some scientists to going ahead with the super H-bomb now.

Word is getting around that there is deep concern in the Senate-Atomic committee and the Atomic Energy commission because of conditions shaping up something like this:

In developing the atomic bomb, the United States had to draw heavily on men who came from overseas, men like Budapest-born Dr. Edward Teller and Rome-born Dr. Enrico Fermi, both of the University of Chicago.

While the theory of the hydrogen bomb has been known for years, getting this proposed super weapon into production again would be likely to require many such scientists in key places.

Many Complications
One authority is reported to have drawn up a list of the necessary talent which includes only two native Americans, Dr. Charles L. Critchfield of the University of Minnesota and Dr. J. A. Wheeler of Princeton.

Many of the foreign born on the list are on the faculties of American universities or employed by American industries. Like Teller and Fermi, some now are naturalized citizens. But at least four Britishers are named.

Getting British scientists opens up several questions. Some authorities say it would require an agreement with Britain, and loosening atomic energy law controls over atomic information and materials. Some doubt that any scientists who are not American citizens could be employed on the H-bomb project unless the law is changed.

Lansford, Pa., 10 (AP)—Patrick J. McCall watched with pardonable pride last night as more than 2,000 townsfolk took part in a celebration dedicating the new modern home of the Lansford Evening Record. McCall, who once was a newspaper carrier boy for the Evening Record, now is its president and owner.

Cooke Promises He Will Be Independent

Idwin, Pa., March 10 (AP)—Jay Cooke, Philadelphia financier seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination, says he will not be influenced by any particular group if elected governor.

Cooke, opening his campaign at a meeting of the Westmoreland county federation of Young Republican clubs last night, added: "Youth will be in the administration in continually increasing numbers."

Cooke is being opposed for the gubernatorial nomination by a group supported by Governor James H. Duff. The Governor, who can't succeed himself, is seeking his party's senatorial nomination. He favors former Superior Court Judge John S. Fine for the governorship.

Duff has broken with a Republican faction which includes former Senator Joseph Grundy, GOP National Committeeman Mason Owlett and Senator Edward Martin.

Northerners Win In Rifle Match

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Northern marksmanship, or southern chivalry, prevailed in the annual Yankee-Rebel rifle match yesterday.

The 10 northerners outscored the southerners 3,903 to 3,887. The winners' shot was a woman, Adelaide McCord of Sewickley, Pa. She scored 395 out of a possible 400.

Arthur Cook of Washington won two matches in the national mid-winter shoot yesterday. He hit 41 bull's eyes in a row to capture the Swiss match and won the Randle trophy with 40 shots dead center. Sam Bond of New Philadelphia, Ohio, took the Trull memorial trophy (20 shots at 200 yards) with a 196.

DEMOCRATIC SLATEMAKERS MEETING TODAY

Harrisburg, March 10 (AP)—Top Democratic slate-makers huddled here today amidst predictions that Richardson Dilworth will get the nod for governor with Judge Michael A. Musmanno as his running mate.

The 13-member Democratic state policy committee called a meeting (1 p. m.) for another try at fashioning a primary election ticket to recommend to county chairmen.

The Dilworth-Musmanno combination was predicted by several Pennsylvania Democratic congressmen. Dilworth is Philadelphia city treasurer, while Musmanno is a Pittsburgh common pleas judge.

The Dilworth drive is almost certain to run into trouble, however, from backers of U. S. District Judge Guy K. Bard for governor.

Austin E. McCullough, Jr., Lancaster county chairman, leading the Bard drive, has already served notice he will campaign independently for Bard's nomination if he is by-passed by the policy committee.

Coroner William D. McClelland, of Pittsburgh, also is actively seeking the gubernatorial nomination. McClelland has said, however, he will bow out of the picture should Musmanno be slated for governor. Musmanno has expressed similar intentions in behalf of McClelland.

sylvania's 15 Democrats in the House yesterday showed all were confident Dilworth would get the nod for governor with Musmanno as his running mate for lieutenant governor.

Rumors Conflict

The Democratic congressmen lined up the remainder of the ticket this way: State Sen. Frank W. Ruth, of Berks county for Secretary of Internal Affairs; Common Pleas Judge Michael Egan, of Lackawanna county for State Supreme Court, and Common Pleas Judge Roy I. Carson, of Washington county, for State Superior Court.

U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers is unopposed for re-nomination.

However, the opinion of the Democratic congressman was in direct conflict with reports circulated yesterday that Dilworth might withdraw from the race if Musmanno is slated for the post of lieutenant governor. Dilworth, however, declined comment on the report, and two members of the policy committee indicated it has no foundation.

Jury Acquits Dr. Sander On Murder Count; Physician Now Faces Medical Board Hearing

By HENRY SUPPLE
Candia, N. H., March 10 (AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander, acquitted of murder in the death of a cancer-riddled patient, still faces a hearing before the state Board of Registration in Medicine.
Dr. John S. Wheeler, state health officer and secretary of the board, said last night the board will decide what medical penalty, if any, will be imposed on the 41-year-old Canadian doctor.
The board secretary said he will contact members of the group at once and that Dr. Sander will be subpoenaed a reasonable time to "test up" before he is called.

May Resume Practice
The House of Delegates of the New Hampshire Medical Society, which generally makes recommendations to the board, plans to meet Sunday afternoon in Concord—the state capital—to discuss the case.
Dr. Wheeler pointed out, however, that it is his board that has authority to grant or revoke licenses to practice medicine.
He said the board had requested Dr. Sander to appear before it in January—just after his indictment—but the physician requested postponement until after the trial.
Wheeler's announcement came after court attaches had told newsmen that Dr. Sander was free to resume medical practice immediately. They said that restrictions, which prohibited him from practicing during trial, were lifted with acquittal.

Verdict In Hour
The handsome young doctor and his wife, who sped off to an undisclosed place last night after the jury returned its verdict, planned to return home today to the people who swear by him.
The jury deliberated a little more than an hour before freeing Dr. Sander.

With his pretty, smiling wife on his arm, "Herm," as his intimates call him, pushed his way through a cheering crowd outside the county court in Manchester, 12 miles from here, shortly after 5 p. m.
They stepped into an automobile and where whisked into brief seclusion. Pursuing cars soon were outdistanced, but the word got around late last night the Sanders will be home today.

"Justified By Evidence"
Louis E. Wyman, 71-year-old defense counsel, after embracing Dr. Sander in a touching courtroom scene, declared that he felt "the evidence in the case justified the verdict." It was his first murder case in half a century of practice.
"I don't feel the part I played was as important as some people say it was," he told newsmen.
Reginald Borroto, husband of Abbie Borroto—the woman Dr. Sander was charged with killing by air injections—said the acquittal was "the most heart warming news I have ever received. I don't know if I can express any happier thoughts than that."

Borroto Pleased
Borroto, retired oil salesman, said he was "too emotionally upset" to go to the courthouse yesterday. He talked with Dr. Sander soon after the verdict was returned.
Borroto said he and his 19-year-old daughter, Elise, were visiting the Sander home here when the doctor telephoned.
"As always," Borroto said, "his concern was for us. He asked how I was and then asked for Elise. Then he said 'there's going to be quite a crowd out at the house and my advice to you both is you had better go home.'"
From the outset, Borroto had expressed hope that the young physician would be acquitted.

Leister, pastor, will observe the "One Great Hour of Sharing" in their respective churches on Sunday. The churches include Zwingli in East Berlin, St. Paul at Red Run, Mt. Olivet near Bermudian, Emmanuel in Hampton and St. John at New Chester. The concluding national radio broadcast preparatory to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" can be heard on any CBS station, Saturday, between 6:30 and 7 p. m. A special offering for World Service will be received in the churches on Sunday morning.

On Sunday, March 19, the Evangelical and Reformed congregation and the Lutheran congregation of the Lower Bermudian churches will conduct a union anniversary service in the Lutheran church at 9:30 a. m. The congregations began their history when they organized a union church at New Bermudian on March 19, 1745, 205 years ago. The Rev. Norman Bortner, Lutheran pastor, will conduct the service and the Rev. Alton M. Leister, Evangelical and Reformed pastor, will preach the sermon. Church school sessions will be held in the respective churches following the union service.

To Re-dedicate Church

Regular worship services and separate church school sessions are now being conducted each Sunday in Mt. Olivet Evangelical and Reformed church near Bermudian. The pastor, Rev. Leister, has announced the re-dedication week, following extensive remodeling and refurbishing in the church, will be conducted from April 16 to 23.

On Sunday, March 19, at a regular worship service in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church in New Chester, an entirely new set of church hymnals will be dedicated and used for the first time. The time of this service will be changed to 10:45 a. m. from the usual schedule for this Sunday.

The Mite society of Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church in East Berlin held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening at the church. Devotions and program were presented by Mrs. Mary Hull, Mrs. Kathleen Bowers and Mrs. Doris Leister. The president, Mrs. Kathryn Eisenhart, presided over the business meeting, during which reports on supper and quilting activities were made.

Plan Turkey Supper

Refreshments were in the form of a covered dish social. At the meeting it was planned to conduct a public turkey supper at the church on Saturday, March 25, serving to begin at 4 p. m. The proceeds of the supper will be for a part of the remodeling and refurbishing program of the church.

The Youth Fellowship of Zwingli church plan to hold a skating party on Thursday evening, March 30. Tickets will be available from any of the members of the organization.

Says Truman Refused Separate Peace Offer

Washington, March 10 (AP)—President Truman refused a German surrender offer 13 days before World War II ended in Europe.

In reporting this, Admiral William D. Leahy, presidential aide, said the offer was made through Heinrich Himmler, chief of the Nazi Storm troops, to the United States and Britain. Himmler said he was willing to surrender all German troops on the Western front, including those in Holland, Denmark and Norway. Leahy recalls.

Mr. Truman turned him down in accord with American pledges to the Russians and the British that nothing but full surrender of all German forces to all the allies was acceptable.

Leahy's report on the incidents preceding the final German surrender appears in his book, "I Was There," which is running serially in the Saturday Evening Post.

REACH ACCORD ON BASIC TERMS FOR ANTHRACITE

By NORMAN WALKER

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Basic agreement on terms of a new anthracite labor contract brought prospects today of comparative peace in the entire coal industry for some time ahead.

John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers Union, and anthracite operators announced Wed. they were in accord on the principles of a settlement. They left final details of lawyers, expecting to ratify the final agreement today.

The contract covering the 78,000 hard coal miners of northeastern Pennsylvania is expected to be patterned closely after the soft coal pact—which calls for a 70-cent daily wage boost for miners plus a 10-cent increase in the previous 20-cent tonnage royalty for welfare payments.

End 3-Day Week

Lewis had asked hard coal operators for a bigger royalty increase than the 10-cent boost won in soft coal. But it was reported he finally agreed to the same royalty increase. Terms were not announced by the anthracite negotiators.

An end of the three-day work week in anthracite mines was ordered by Lewis. There had been no strike in hard coal as there had been in soft coal. Instead, the anthracite miners went on a three-day week last December 5.

The hard coal miners were to continue working today and tomorrow in their first full five-day week this year. A production quota set for this week will keep most hard coal miners working this Saturday, too, at time and half rates.

Taft Hurls Charges

Meanwhile Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told the Senate Wednesday that President Truman's handling of the soft coal strike prolonged the dispute. Taft said the administration had "encouraged open defiance of the law."

Taft contended the Taft-Hartley act's emergency court injunction provisions would have worked to stop the soft coal strike if the injunction had been ordered by Mr. Truman.

The senator said as things turned out, the administration had confirmed "the power of a monopoly union" and made "more probable the occurrence of serious emergencies in the future."

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The Commerce department clamped tighter restriction Wednesday on shipment of strategic goods to Red China or other points from where they might be re-shipped to countries in the Soviet sphere.

It issued an order requiring licenses to export some 600 goods of "strategic importance" to any place outside the western hemisphere, effective March 20.

14 Military Prisoners Die In Sandia Guard House Fire

Albuquerque, N. M., March 10 (AP)—The lives of 14 military prisoners were snuffed out Wednesday by oil-fed flame, which spread lightning-fast through a Sandia base guard house.

Trapped with them in the tinder-dry wood structure, the prisoners' other two inmates were injured critically. It was the first major disaster in the history of the war-built installation—now a semi-secret assembly point for the atomic bomb.

Two guards, alerted by prisoners' cries, vainly tried to rescue them from behind bars and meshed wire windows. They were overcome with six others fighting the blaze. Twenty additional officers and men also were treated for smoke effects.

Blame Oil Stoves

Investigators said there was no doubt the fire started from one of two big oil stoves used to heat the prison. They still sought to determine how and why.

It was all over 25 minutes after the first alarm was sounded at 7:35 p. m. (MST). Thirteen of the prisoners apparently died in the first few seconds; the other two succumbed two hours later at a hospital.

Most of the victims were believed to have inhaled the intense heat and suffocated, Sandia authorities said. Guards reported there were few outcries to indicate any suffered long.

Contrary to first reports, Maj. Kenneth Kolster, Sandia's intelligence officer, said there was no evidence of an explosion.

Bodies Are Found

Damage consisted principally of badly scorched ceilings and walls, mostly in a 100-foot, L-shaped corridor and three cell blocks. It appeared the fire flashed overhead in less time than it takes to tell.

The prisoners had finished their evening meal a short time before. Some already were in bed, reading or sleeping. Bodies of two were found in a shower room; three others lay just outside the door.

Major Kolster described five of the prison inmates as "bad cookies," jailed after conviction on serious charges by a military court. The others he labeled minor offenders. He declined to detail charges on which any were court martialed.

Guards Overcome

The two guards were the building's only occupants besides the 16 prisoners. One, Cpl. Richard A. Miller, 27, of Stockton, Calif., was in the guardhouse office—at the opposite end of the building from the flaming stove—when the fire was discovered. The other, Pvt. Wilbur Henry, 22, of South Zanesville, O., was walking back to the office midway along the corridor. He had passed the stove five minutes earlier.

Both were overcome by smoke, but attendants said they probably would be able to leave the hospital soon.

The provost marshal, Lt. Col. Ralph Tolve, and post police and Prison Officer Lt. Stephen H. Perry, and four unidentified civilian firemen also were overcome by smoke.

The fire was sighted at 7:35 p. m. (MST). A prisoner called out to one of the guards. In approximately 15 minutes the building was gutted.

Tried To Release Them

The guard, Corporal Miller, said he saw a flash of light and called out to Private Henry to sound the fire alarm.

"I started to try to release the prisoners from the cell blocks," he related to investigators. "Before I was able to unlock the first door, the flame and heat and smoke drove me back."

Henry said he sounded the fire

AFRICAN PRINCE TO FIGHT EXILE

London, March 10 (AP) — Seretse Khama, Oxford-educated Negro chief of the African tribe of Bamangatos, has vowed to fight Britain's action to exile him and his white British wife from his homeland.

The government's decision depriving the 27-year-old chief of the throne, given to him by a vote of the tribe, has threatened repercussions throughout the polyglot British commonwealth and even in the United Nations.

Commonwealth Relations Secretary Patrick Gordon-Walker announced in the House of Commons yesterday that Seretse was ordered not to return to his homeland in the British protectorate of Bechuanaland. It brought severe criticism from several members of the House of Commons, including Winston Churchill, and in most of London's press.

Seretse earlier had charged that he had been tricked into coming to London. His wife, the former Ruth Williams who was once a London typist, has stayed behind in the mud hut capital of Serowe, awaiting the birth of their first baby.

Seretse told newsmen last night: "I intend to fight the decision." He declared he would challenge it in court or possibly in the United Nations. He also said he would go home soon in defiance of the exile order. He ordered his wife to stay in Serowe.

SPORTSMEN TO HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET APR. 12

Dr. Joseph R. Riden, president, was in charge of the March meeting of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., Wednesday evening in the club house on the Fish and Game farm in Germany township. G. Richard Knipple presented the secretary's report.

The association decided to hold a pork and sauerkraut supper Wednesday evening, March 15, at 6:30 o'clock in the club house. The price of the tickets will be $1. The food has been donated by the members and the proceeds will go into the building fund. Tickets may be secured from William Renner at the Littlestown Five and Ten, at Renner Brothers and Zerling's Hardware stores or from Dr. Richard M. Phreaner.

It was also decided to hold the annual spring banquet on the next regular meeting night, Wednesday, April 12. The following banquet committee was appointed: R. Renner, chairman; Theron W. Spangler, Glenn Bowers, George Schaefer and Richard Staley. This committee will decide the menu, the price and the place and report later.

Stocking Game

Bernard Dillman, the local representative to the Adams County Sportsmen's Association, reported that trout were stocked in the Adams county streams during the past two weeks and that the schedule called for putting brook trout in Carbaugh's run, Caledonia, Thursday of this week. This work has been done by the state with the assistance of sportsmen from Adams county.

Dillman also reported that pheasant stocking will take place in the near future. He requested all of the sportsmen that know of the whereabouts of hen pheasants should inform Charles Fissel of the club, who will relay the information to Game Protector, Leo Bushman, who will see to it that cock pheasants are placed in that locality.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by a committee consisting of Ray Harner, Paul Renner and LeRoy Helwig.

It was announced that the team of Leon H. Gage will hold a shooting match Saturday, March 18 at 1 p. m., at the Fish and Game farm. Prizes will consist of turkeys, hams, woolrich shirts and fishing equipment.

George M. Zerling who operates hardware stores in Gettysburg, Littlestown and Taneytown has increased his stock of sanders, edgers and polishers of all types for every purpose and now has 45 machines of various types on rent. A trade magazine, "Hardware Age," recently described Mr. Zerling's sander rental business as the largest to be found in any small town in the United States. Above, Mr. Zerling (left) is shown with a store employee, Elbert Harbaugh, Gettysburg R. 1, and a display of edgers and sanders.

Philadelphia, March 10 (AP) — A three alarm fire swept through a Philadelphia candy factory last night. Fanned by brisk winds, it threatened 50 nearby homes before being brought under control.

Police alerted residents in the neighborhood surrounding the blaze at 2720 West Susquehanna avenue to be prepared to leave their homes. Flames shot 100 feet in the air.

Firemen had the conflagration confined to the factory by midnight, an hour after it was discovered. The damage was not immediately estimated.
